

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

REGARDING THE GODHEAD AND THE LAST GENERATION THEOLOGY

It has been brought to our attention that a rumor is floating around that Pastor Bohr does not believe that Jesus is fully God. Pastor Bohr has clearly expressed his view of the Godhead on multiple occasions both before and after his sermon at GYC. His view is clearly expressed in his series 'What Jesus Said' (pp. 37-66) and 'Revisiting the Godhead' which are available at Secrets Unsealed for all to view. Furthermore, he shared his views on the Godhead with the Fairview SDA Church in the Pennsylvania Conference on May 3, 4, 2019 where he clearly expressed his view of the Godhead. Lest there be any misunderstanding of his position, Pr. Bohr would like to reiterate that his view of the Godhead and Christ is as follows:

- There are three persons in the Godhead—the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit who work out man's salvation.
- Jesus is 100% co-substantial with the Father.
- Jesus is one hundred percent God in the highest sense of the word.
- Although Jesus is ontologically equal with His Father, He is a distinct person.
- As God, Jesus possesses within Himself all the divine attributes.
- Although Jesus is 100% God, equal with God by nature, He has ever been subject to His Father's will.

Regarding this last point, the biblical and Spirit of Prophecy evidence is overwhelming that Jesus, from eternity past and in eternity future, has been and will be subject to the Father's will. makes salvation anthropocentric is misguided. Jesus is our only means of salvation. Justification and sanctification are His work, not ours, and the glory belongs to Him alone. The fact is that when probation closes God's faithful people will have to live in the sight of holy God without an intercessor. To question this is to question the integrity of Ellen White's prophetic gift. Secrets Unsealed produced a 32-hour seminar on 'Last Generation Theology' in English and Spanish and the series is available to all who want to know what our ministry stands for on this subject.
